

BREACH OF HARBOUR REGULATIONS.
W. Nichols, master of the American ship "Presto," was summoned by F. S. J. Harkin, an authority having wilfully neglected to have a bright white light displayed on his ship on the 2nd inst., contrary to Ordnance 8 of 1879.

Harkin said that he was off Wanchai at 2 a.m. and he saw the "Wandering Jew" lying there, showing no lights. He hailed her several times, but getting no answer, he went on and, having lost sight of the "Jew," went up below, but could see no answer. He went up and knocked his heel on the deck so loud that he could not hear it, and went on, and could find no one. After he had knocked his heel on the deck someone came aft and said he was the watchman, and witness sent him to call the captain. The defendant came up, and witness told him what was amiss. The captain said he was not where he had been, and he replied that he had been ashore. There was a lantern aboaft, but it was out. The carpenter's shop was open, and all the tools were lying there.

The defendant admitted the charge, and he was fined $10.

THE ARMED ATTACK IN HIGH-STREET.
ADMIRAL, KAMO ASHU, and HO AICHUNG were board the court at Tokyo, Japan, on the 23rd instant, and the house of KAMO AICHUNG was entered, but the minister prevented him, saying two and a quarter lakhs of rupes to settle business. All the assistants of the Bombaray Harbor Trading Corporation in Chindwin will remain, the Koonayaw office is closed.

CALCUTTA, 10th November.

The following telegram has been despatched by the Secretary to the Bengal Chamber of Commerce—
RANGOON, 10th November.
The answer is altogether evasive and unsatisfactory on all heads. Theobald tacitly or absolutely refuses compliance with every demand made.

"General Prendergast has been ordered to make arrangements for an immediate advance. Instructions from the Vicerey are awaited prior to crossing the frontier."

CALCUTTA, 11th November.

The second or eastern Bengal division of the Coolie corps under the command of Lieutenant Meekler with sub-conductors Baldwin and staff sergeant Masson all of the transport department left at 5 p.m. yesterday in the transport "Bengal" for Burma. The corps numbered 2,000 men, and were being transported in the north-west provinces and Eastern Bengal; they are in medical charge of two native doctors.

At 12 m. on the 24th ult. he went to his house, a boarding house in Queen's-road East, and proceeded to the kitchen to give some instructions to the cook. While he was there the prisoner came in and asked him for half a dollar to pay a jinrikisha coolie with. Complainant asked him what he meant by such a request, he was told the man board and lodgings for nothing, and was asked to give him a dollar to pay the coolie, and when it was again refused him, he became threatening, and said he would have the money. He then struck complainant with his fist, and he avoided the blow.

A scuffle then ensued in the course of which McCann went down, but he struck to complainant's neck and dragged him down. He would not let go of him, and when he did, complainant let go of him, and when he did, he separated. After that the prisoner, calling him a black [redacted] ran at him and grappled with him again. He tried to drag complainant into his room, and being unsuccessful, he let go and rushed inside his room, while complainant went upstairs. Complainant put his coat on, and came to the top of the stairs, expecting to see the prisoner come up. While there he heard the steps of the prisoner coming down the stairs, and the prisoner followed him up with the scuffle. Complainant paused in his flight, and turned upon McCann, who had him to the McGregor barracks, and took him to the hospital, and he was treated as a soldier. He was confined to the barracks until another boarder from the house came up and managed to get him away. Complainant had three wounds on his right side, and three on the left side of his stomach. He was taken to the Civil Hospital, and remained under treatment there three days, when he was discharged. The prisoner came down to Kowloon, and was apprehended, took him in and gave him his coat and lodgings on the chance of getting him a job. In answer to the prisoner complainant said he did not strike the first blow.

THAYETMYO, 8th November.
The "Ashley" has, without the permission, left at five o'clock to catch mail at Prome. The answer is reported to be that it is due to the arrival of the steamer "Commodore." It is stated that the Burmese will fight if time is allowed them to prepare at Mandalay.

HOOTON, 9th November.
The steamer "Commodore" has been sent to the Yangtze River to recruit coolies.

MANDALAY, 9th November.
A very lengthy prison sentence was issued yesterday by the Government. It is signed by all the Ministers and states that the English "Kukku" have sent a letter to the King proposing more ridiculous terms which His Majesty cannot accept, so there will be war between the two countries. All loyal Burmans are called upon to fight. They will not be forced to serve, but they must all defend their own homes.

THAYETMYO, 10th November.
The English and Burmese must fight. The English will destroy the Buddhist religion, so this time Burmans must not only fight for the country, but for their religion, and hypocrites (Priests) are being sent all over the country to inflame the minds of the people. The Germans, Italians, Americans, French and Russians, (foreigners) who are Burmese subjects, will be sent to Upper Burma, but only by force.

THAYETMYO, 11th November.
There has been a bold demonstration by Modo Mahomed's men against the Italian Consul.

Preparations are being made to block the river at Moulmein and Yenangyone.

The Burmese will evidently make a determined resistance. A clear and strong appeal to Moulmein, and to every official within the "Dagon" will be able to get away, but the Europeans in Mandalay have determined to blockade themselves in the houses of the Italian Doctor, and the Mahomedan merchants in the house of Moola Ali. He will guarantee the safety of those on board.

THAYETMYO, 12th November.
The Taiwo arrived at Thayetmyo at noon on 11th instant; she was very nearly detained at Moulmein. A King's order with the late Moulmein has been issued by the "Dagon," but was overtaken before she reached Moulmein.

There has been a bold demonstration by Modo Mahomed's men against the Italian Consul.

Preparations are being made to block the river at Moulmein and Yenangyone.

HOOTON, 11th November.
The prisoner was committed to the Civil Hospital, but could not find one, and returned in time to see the words intimated us stated.

Samuel Garnet Sherman, a seaman staying at Lemon's, proposed to seeing a portion of the occurrences in the house, and as far as he could, his testimony was entirely corroborative of that of Mr. Lemon.

P.C. No. 73, gave evidence to Mr. Lemon, coming to No. 2 Station especially hard, hurt, and witness sent him to the Civil Hospital in an ambulance.

Inspектор Mackie deposed that he went in search of the prisoner after this occurrence, and arrested him in Queen's-road Central. The prisoner said that he had asked for medical of Lemon, who had referred him to the Civil Hospital, but who had his life or die, etc. He was to fetch a policeman, but could not find one, and returned in time to see the words intimated us stated.

James Downes, a seaman employed by Lemon, gave evidence to what occurred in the house of a character exactly similar to that of the complainant. A clear and strong appeal to Moulmein, and to every official within the "Dagon" will be able to get away, but the Europeans in Mandalay have determined to blockade themselves in the houses of the Italian Doctor, and the Mahomedan merchants in the house of Moola Ali. He will guarantee the safety of those on board.
